

French Men In Edinburgh

Chapter One

We are two French students from South West of France, we come here in internship but also to discover this country and Edinburgh City. We are here for two months and we are really enthusiastic.

We are in Edinburgh since a week and we can tell you lots of things yet ...

First, People in Edinburgh are really helpful. For example, we just arrive at the airport, we must take the bus to go in our youth hostel and we didn't know that to take the bus you need the exact money (1£50). So we were a bit embarrassed and a girl that we don't even know gives us the exact money without asking her anything. We don't know if it's because of our lovely smiles but she helps us and we could take the bus.

The bus is really useful but it's expensive, 1£50 for a journey and 4£ a day. So we'd rather take bikes to go work.

Something to know, in Scotland like in England, people drive on the left side of the road and it's really weird. Even in bikes you've got to be careful, moreover when you've drunk some delicious fresh pints in a Pub.

The Pubs, the legend for the foreigners... It's really cool, good music, little concerts, sport, and the BEER. Even if you don't want to drink a lot, a beer is always better than a coffee in a Pub. Around 5PM yesterday, after work we go to the AlbanachBar in town, I drink a Beer and Theo choose an espresso... The thing he doesn't know was that the espresso costs 3£ and my Pint 4£ so he was the saddest man in Edinburgh at this moment.

The Bars and Pubs are really fun and you can always meet people, Scottish people are not closed to foreigners and they always want to tell you some french words, we laughed a lot.
